IV. Speakers

- a. David Reese – 9:30 am
 - i. David Reese came and talked to the Council about the recent dollar pay increase. It was explained that union workers will have to wait to get their increase until bargaining has been completed, but backpay to July 1st should occur. The state works to fund part of this increase with MSU funds covering 60 cents.

V. Previous Business

- a. Updates on remote work agreements at MSU
 - i. Some people have had remote work approved, but the majority of those who put in a request for an extension have been denied.

VI. New Business

- a. Welcome new members to council/introductions
 - i. All Council went around the room and introduced themselves and what department of MSU they work in.
- b. Provide Council members with operating agreement and discuss what it means to be on All Staff Council
 - i. The current operating agreement and constitution are not aligned, and work will be done to rewrite them.
 - ii. Council members were filled in on what All Staff Council is.
 - iii. Documents will be emailed directly to members.
- c. Inform new members about open positions
 - i. There are positions open in the internal committee as well as external committees.
 - ii. A survey will be sent out to members to gauge interest in where they would like to serve on external committees, and members will be placed by the next meeting.

VII. President's Meeting Update

- a. Kayla Lee and Evan Greenwood met with President Tessman and had a good discussion.
 - i. They asked President Tessman about changing All Staff Council's name back to Staff Senate for information across universities. President Tessman was receptive and agreed.
 - ii. It will take time to further discuss this as a council and choose how to move forward.
